THANK YOU

for your continued support...

More so now than ever, it is vitally important to ensure that the green spaces and communal amenities at your community are safe, well maintained, accessible to all and insured - all of that requires your residents company to have sufficient money.

With the continued prompt payment of your service charge, or agreement to setting up a payment plan, you really are helping to support your residents company and your community.

preim
people places communities

www.preim.co.uk